PRINCIPAL’S COMMENTS.........Paul Jorgensen (Principal)

I hope everyone enjoyed the short break with the long weekend. At school on Monday, staff reviewed the work we are doing with improving writing outcomes for students and how we teach writing. We were able to refine our Writing Checklists that the students work on when writing and we were able to focus our ideas around what makes a good writing lesson.

On Tuesday, 11th November, we will be holding our own Remembrance Day ceremony and with this is where we will have our Civics and Citizenship Awards. We will begin at 10.45 am with our Remembrance Day activities followed by the Civics and Citizenship Awards which will be presented by Linden Giles, a member of the Churchill RSL. We extend an invitation to all members of our school community to attend and hope to see as many as possible there.

At present, our student numbers look around 142 for next year and as such, we are considering six classes instead of seven for next year. This still leaves an average of 24 students per class which is still in the range parents felt was acceptable in our recent survey. We are currently looking at what our class structures will be and what teachers we will have and looking at the numbers, it will be a difficult and perhaps a bit messy challenge. Please let us know as soon as possible if you have any requests for placing students next year or know of any new students or students leaving our school. We cannot promise anything but will certainly do our best to accommodate the requests.

BOOK FAIR
Congratulations to Georgia, Lleyton, Lily, Meg and Sarah who took upon the responsibility of Book Fair Assistants during our recent Book Fair. They worked during their recesses and lunch times organising the brochures, the colouring competition, and the “Book Talk” presentation as well as creating the colourful “Book Garden” signs displayed around the School. During the Book Fair they displayed great organisation and customer service skills when helping students and parents with their purchases.

Also, a big thank you to our School Community for your support. The Book Fair raised more than $500 in free books for the Library. The colouring competition winners all received a $15.00 voucher to spend in the Book Fair: Claire Thorburn, Melina Turnbull, Chanel McFarlane, Alex Lovison, Max McLardy and Emmerson Taylor. Runners-up in the colouring competition received a poster and pencil or rubber of their choice. They were Shanae Key, Malachi Sanders, Olivia Short, Hollie Gibson, Alyce Perez and Shayla Currie.
